Summer Camp FAQs

Will concessions be sold during the camp day?

Yes, concessions will be sold. Items such as chips, candy, cookies, and more will be available for purchase for $1-$2. If your child would like to purchase concessions, please send them to camp with money to do so.

Does my child need to bring money for anything else?

Yes, the Del's Lemonade truck will come to camp on Thursdays afternoons, and campers may to bring money to purchase a lemonade if they choose.

Is there an end-of-week performance?

Yes, all Camp weeks conclude with an end-of-week performance for families at 3pm on Friday. Performances are either held at St. John's Church (If the weather allows, we will hold an OUTDOOR performance in the field. Otherwise, Friday performances will be held in the main hall). Performances may also be held at the Barrington Public Library Salem Auditorium. Your child's performance location will be communicated to you at the start of the session.

Do I need to purchase or provide costumes for the performance?

We ask that campers provide their own costumes/ accessories from home for their performance. Campers will not be asked to purchase any costume items. We will notify you mid-week about what colors/ items we would like campers to bring in/ wear for their performance.

What are the protocols if my camper gets sick while at camp?

Parents will be notified by phone or email if a camper gets sick while at camp.

How do I contact Arts Alive! during camp hours?

The best way to contact us during or after camp hours is via email at admin@artsalivebarrington.org. Our Administrator checks our email frequently during Camp to ensure we are able to communicate as needed with Camp families & Camp staff.
